Description

A unique offer for those who want to live in comfort, yet boasting an elegant architectural ensemble, this property is your obvious choice. This spacious 5-bedroom is located on the lower North side of the posh residential suburb of Floréal, in a cul de sac just a few meters from the British High Commission. As you enter the house, through the entrance hall, you'll immediately walk into a large living and dining area. Then, you'll have a study which offers great views over the lush garden, swimming pool, and mountain ranges in the distance. There is also a conventional kitchen with its own access from the back yard, where you'll find a carport, a double garage, and a vast paved area with ample parking spaces.

Through the corridor, there are 2 bedrooms and a bathroom, , the colossal master bedroom with its dressing and bathroom. Clever concept, the master bedroom opens on a terrace, where there is a sauna and a spiral staircase on the exterior if you wish to enjoy the views over the North of the island.

Now in the basement, you will enter private quarters where there are 2 bedrooms of which one is en-suite, a family/tv room, a games room, and a bathroom. Outside, the swimming pool situated in the front garden with beautiful established trees and plants. Another handy feature, in the back garden, there is a secondary house with its own access, comprising of several rooms, ideal for staff quarters or a secondary house for guests.
