Description

An architectural style that turns back the hands of time, this 2-bedroom, palatial style home is located on the famous King George VI Avenue. All having a luxurious feel, this house offers a ground floor living area of 300 m² and a basement of the same size, with rooms, a double garage, and even a wine cellar for wine enthusiasts. An interesting feature, the house has a special Indian-style decor inside with a sculptured wooden water feature and an atrium. With elegance in mind, the large living room extends to the dining room. For your comfort, this house comprises 2 en-suite bedrooms, spacious and cozy, the ideal spot mostly on cold winter nights.

The exterior offers a spacious terrasse, offering stunning views of the landscaped garden and the hills in the distance.

Among the other home amenities, find a TV room, a traditional kitchen, a pantry, a study, and two laundry rooms. and a wooden staircase that leads you to the rooftop, ideal to enjoy sunsets.

This house is perfectly suited for a family where parents can live independently, as the children or guests can convert the basement into a cozy home.

House sold semi furnished and available Jan 2023.
